

C1850

Gold fillings in Teeth Introduced c1850 by American dentist Robert Arthur (1819-1880) in his Philadelphia practice

1850

Binder for Books (Main Binder) Invented 1850 by American inventor John E. Heath

1850

Fugitive slave laws enacted by U.S. Government to provide for return of escaped Negro slaves to their respective states.

Also in 1793.

1850

Traffic on Erie Canal declined
due to railroads

1918 replaced by Barge Canal.

Jan - June 1850

DON PACIFICO affair
British Foreign Minister (later Prime Minister) Viscount Palmerston (Oct 20, 1784 - Oct 18, 1865) defended, in his greatest parliamentary speech, British seizure of Greek ships at Piraeus to force a settlement of claims by Don Pacifico.
Morish Jew and British Citizen and others against Greek government

1850

Cellular basis of disease was first demonstrated by German pathologist Rudolf
Virchow (1821-1902)

1850

David Copperfield novel, about orphan boy who overcomes poverty and other obstacles to live happily ever after, by English author Charles Dickens, classic film 1934

Sep 27, 1850

U.S. Congress gave settlers 160 to 640 acres in Oregon on which to settle.

Apr 19, 1850

Clayton-Bulwer Treaty
U.S. and Britain agreed to neutrality of any ship canal across Central American isthmus

1850

mercerized Cotton was invented by British inventor John Mercer (1791-1866)

Sep 9, 1850

California was admitted to the Union as 31st State

1850

Bunsen burner

Developed 1850 by German
Chemist Robert W. Bunsen
(1811-1899)

1850

The Total U. S. Population was
23.2 \overline{M}

The Census cost $1,423,000⁰⁰

1850

Population of Earth 1. Billion

C1850
1799-1850

1912 Dates J-France
HONORE de BALZAC

"Comedies of Human Life"

Half starved in a Paris garret

"The Human Comedy" (20 yr period)

1833 Eugenie Grandet

1835 Père Goriot

1847 Cousin Bette